Lloyd Staffing Gets On Board with Long Island Rail Road

Melville, NY – April 18, 2007 - Lloyd Staffing was recently awarded a three-year staffing contract beginning March 2007, with optional renewals for years 2010 and 2011 for the provision of temporary personnel for the Long Island Rail Road. The contract's estimated value is in excess of two million dollars.

Lloyd will be responsible for recruiting and staffing contingent labor for projects such as passenger counts, climate control studies and rider satisfaction surveys. Lloyd has held this contract previously. It typically requires up to 150 temporary associates in a single day for varying shifts throughout the day beginning at 3 a.m. and ending at 9 p.m. Recruitment is ongoing. Candidates may apply at any one of the Lloyd offices in Melville, Great Neck, Holbrook or Manhattan, or online at www.Lloydstaffing.com.
